

Hi-Speed USB 2.0 File Transfer Cable

USB A Male to USB A Male, 2 m (7 ft.)

Model
365925

Great for hurrying without worrying.

Transfer files between computers at speeds up to 480 Mbps with this MANHATTAN® Hi-Speed USB 2.0 File Transfer Cable. The cable comes with user-friendly file transfer software, and it automatically detects and installs peripherals.

Quick and Easy Installation

MANHATTAN always strives to find ways of making and keeping products easy to use. Plug and Play, a simple design and easy-to-use software allow you to install and quickly use the cable.

Allows Secure Transfer of Files

Never place sensitive information on a disk or transfer over the network again. Besides the possibility of losing disks, viruses and hackers can capture, corrupt or otherwise jeopardize your sensitive data. The simple point-to-point connection prevents outside tampering.

Lifetime Warranty

Strict manufacturing standards ensure the highest quality in all MANHATTAN products. All items carry a full Lifetime Warranty — the strongest quality commitment anyone can make.
